Experience deep bass digital ability, combined with lyrical agility, and a 2006 sensibility, Dollar Bill is for real. 6 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Dollar Bill is a native of New Orleans and now lives in Tempe, Az.. His sound reflects the bounce of the Crescent City while infusing the crisp desert air into his deep beats. A sub woofer is absolutely mandatory as 808 kicks abound and the bass is thorough throughout! His first cd, In Your Pocket, is a succinct collection of of six fresh originals that leave you wanting a seventh,eighth, and ninth! Track # 1, Yo What's Up!, will be on the radio b4 the year is up, so hear it here first! Track # 5, Roll This Joint, has anthem potential, and the subject matter is not what you think! And now the controversy. Track # 6, Wildin', is an ethereal piece of music that deals with a tragic story of the Central Park Jogger Case that took place in New york City in the late 1980's. Dollar treats the tough topic with respect while relating the factual and truthful details to the listener, complete with gunshots and sirens! The track ends with a tribute to Dr. M. L. King and a call to end the violence. This song needs to be heard and is long overdue. If you would like to get to know Dollar Bill a little more, visit his personal website , adollarsign.com, and read his daily blog entries. He is a much needed fresh voice, and view, into the rap genre, which, of late, has become a bullet riddled jumble of non sensical misogynist lyrics with absolutely no direction!
