Imagine the Allman Brothers and Mozart playing an acoustic set together...no effects, just brothers Eric Judd setting an original mood of melody and complex guitar work. 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Brother Eric Judd both grew up playing guitar. When they decided to meet up in California a few years back and collaborate on their songwriting two things happened. First, they recorded albums of original rock music. Then, to earn a little extra cash, they accepted a gig playing three hours of instrumental music. This was the beginning of Eric Judd. Their sound caught on so quickly and their performances were becoming sought after that it only seemed logical to make this debut cd. Still in their early twenties, these two brothers have played a long list of private high-end events and parties including dinner parties held by Wolfgang Puck and Julia Child. Eric Judd are known for creating the unique atmosphere of elegance and comfort to any room. Their songs blend classical, new age, jazz, and rock sounds into their own unique musical soundscape. In a short time on the West coast Eric Judd have managed to form a fan base of clientele and music fans as well as interest in their music for film and television. Their most recent album was recorded as a joint project with the Four Seasons Hotel in Beverly Hills.
