Strong songs, smart lyrical melody content with skilled musicians that have a quirky sense of humor! Built for the human race, backed by four years of quality, these fine men refer to themselves as Freak Power Ticket. Gathered in Los Angeles from places like Long Beach, Seattle and a couple towns in Pennsylvania, commonly with the desire to assemble a band that reaches the listener through all senses. To see and hear them is to understand indeed the intensity and crafty ways of these humans. While placing these songwriters and performers in a singular category might generate an argument with your closest neighbor, it's fair to say that the freakish power of this musical ticket rides a different sound wave, if not their own. Thank You, enjoy!  Also check out Ray's instrumental band
