Singing Experience... Each member has been singing gospel music since childhood. As a group, they have produced and performed their original music throughout Maryland, Washington, DC, Virginia, and North Carolina at church conferences, special services, and community outreaches. Military installations in the Baltimore/Washington/Virginia corridor have requested Full of the Gospel for concerts and annual historical events. Among recent accomplishments, the group was selected as a semi-finalist at the Family Christian Bookstore Talent Search and Competition in Winston Salem, North Carolina. And in May 2006, they ministered powerfully to a packed-out Memorial Day crowd at Baltimore Citys renowned Harbor

Place Amphitheatre, where people were healed and delivered. Full of the Gospel has performed live with nationally known contemporary Christian singers: Alvin Slaughter, Israel Houghton (of New Breed), Keith Staten, Rich Mullens, Dr. Thomas Michael, and Bill and Renee Morris of TBN. They have also ministered their music before renowned Christian speakers such as Bishop Corletta Harris-Vaughn, Dr. Mark Chironna of TBN, Clinton and Sarah Utterbach, Pastor Matthew Hagee, Pastors Tony and Cynthia Brazelton, Terry Law, Pastor Shirley Caesar, and Demond Wilson who formerly starred as the Lamont character on the popular 1970s television series Sanford and Son. As time winds down, their commitment to spread the Word deepens. 2006 Full Of The Gospel
