At once epic and very beautiful with a powerful sentiment that is refreshingly different in heavy music. This eclectic melding of musical styles and talents produces a passionate energy, and intense dynamic. Healer was formed by Ivan de Prume, drummer/percussionist and founding member of the multi-platinum selling band White Zombie, in July of 2003. He began composing songs with various renowned musicians which he produced and engineered at his Los Angeles, California recording studio, Burningsound Studio, to forge his musical vision into the sonic masterpiece that would become the band's debut release, "Awakening". Joining de Prume in creating healer's unique sound are: vocalist, guitar player Scott von Heldt from Kurai and Theater of Madness; bassist Jerry Scott from XYZ and Molly Hatchett and Brian Howe (Bad Company); and violinist, yailly tambur player Martin St-Pierre from Cirque Du Soleil. There is an energy that is unique in healer's "Awakening". Colorful percussive rhythms, soul-stirring vocals and a soaring violin enmesh with an insistent backline to combine into a seamless soundscape of exotic Middle Eastern melodies with heavy overtones. The diverse backgrounds that contribute to the sound of healer come together in an amazingly creative musical journey. The band's mission is to bring more tribal energy into the world by strengthening the social foundation in hopes of bringing all walks of life together to see, appreciate and enjoy the real value in all living things throughout the world.
