Bravo God is a contemporary praise and worship project with driving guitar hooks and smooth, catchy vocals. The songs, originals as well as new renditions of old, familiar hymns, are excellent for corporate worship settings. 11 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Nationally known recording artist/worship leader, Jami Smith, has been writing songs, and traveling and leading worship throughout the country and around the world for more than ten years. She has several independent projects as well as three records for Integrity Music. Her heart is to communicate the constant love that God has for us all through the gift of music. Specifically, she desires to use music as a servant to open people up to commune with and be vulnerable before God, not afraid of Him. "I like to watch others sing to GOD, and more importantly, worship Him through this art form. Worship is bigger than music, bigger than us, and when we worship together, we acknowledge our dependency, our depravity, our need of a Savior." Musically, she has been compared to many different female rockers such as Sheryl Crow, Alanis Morissette, and Tracy Chapman. If you are a worship leader or someone who enjoys rock with christian lyrics, you are going to love Jami's music. For more info on Jami, go to jamismith.com.
