Among those enjoying this cd are healers, massage therapists, artists and meditators 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Gentle, NEW AGE: Healing Details: John Nelson is a Seattle based musician, songwriter, composer and producer/engineer. His sound is an eclectic blend of influences combining elements of blues, country, folk, swing, and world music. His original compositions have appeared on albums, radio, and video. A native of the Pacific Northwest, John has played with a variety of groups including The Air Streams (country honky-tonk), The Shimmering Guitars (twang, surf and blues) and Max Johnny (original acoustic folk/blues/rock). As a songwriter his compositions evoke themes of love and loss, introspection, wanderlust, and character portraits. His first solo album, Soliloquy, is an intimate collection of original acoustic guitar instrumentals. The songs are meditative, inspiring, and calming. Some are lullabies, others uptempo, all with varying feels and time signatures. They are being listened to during massage, meditation, and whenever a relaxing mood is desired. These songs were inspired by, and are dedicated to the patients and staff of Children's Hospital and Medical Center in Seattle, Washington. Since it's release in the spring of 2003, Soliloquy has recieved many favorable reviews. (see below)
