This is a spoken word CD of sensual, provocative, poetry of life that enters the soul with the first...whisper

29 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Poetry, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: Mitch has written poetry for over 10 years, and has compiled a series of children's stories, sold poetry books on the internet, and is published in romance novels. Mitch studied, practiced, and taught the art of Shaolin Kung Fu for over 28 years, including working with elementary school students on self defense techniques. Mitch also has worked in the medical field, first as an EMT and currently works in the ER of a level one trauma hospital. Dealing with difficult patients as well as very ill patients, from the violent to the freshly dead. Every level of life is experienced at that ER. Mitch is a member of the "Cherokee Roundtable" a very distinguished and old writers group that meets regularly in Louisville Kentucky, to share writings of many different genres. Spoken word is not new to Mitch, WHISPERS is the second CD created and performed. LEAN THIS WAY was released in 2005. The response to this CD stirred so much interest that Mitch created "WHISPERS" which includes more music and poetry of differing aspects of life, love and sensuality. Writing is of the soul, and hearing this poet speak these words will cause one to fly into a different place. One truly falls into every word; feeling the sensuality, the pain of lost love, and the abuses of life or time . A few testimonials about the new release "Whispers": Wow!!!!!! Very awesome!! I was enamored with Rod McKuen as a teen. Your voice and words send chills much as Rod did for me back then! - Cat, Augusta Georgia From the first word the deep vibration begins gentle , caressing - softly finding the open of soul filling self and spirit with longing to the answer of the aching bliss. - Deb, Washington State WOW, a very sexy, tantalizing voice you have I've been single for so long, to just hear a sexy voice saying these words are so comforting. Your words say what every women dreams of hearing and sadly, rarely ever hears. Just playing your words, make my heart race they really do... I don't think that you have any idea what this product will do for thousands of women who hear your words it's as though, those words validate our lives and remind us that someone out there exists in this world who feels like we do, and to not give up and to not just "settle" for less than what we want it's beyond sexual, and it's beyond sensual, it speaks to that private place that we hold inside ourselves and rarely share with another I would be honored to attend one of your readings, I would sit in the front row and cry with tears of gladness to have my inner soul shared with the world that way...promise me and yourself that you will never give this dream up The world needs to hear and every woman needs to hear those powerful words spoken to reaffirm to her that it's "okay to say them" - Marley in TN
