#1 TOP SOUL JAZZ CD FOR 2003 "Rarely has soul jazz been so diverse and melodically interesting, while maintaining a rock-solid groove." Chuck Ingersoll WGMC-FM wgmc.org [released Dec 2003] "Ron's jams are so tight, elegant, and chops-heavy, I would've sworn that he was from the UK! What a surprise to learn that he's a Yank, and a way funky one at that. His jams sound incredible on The Groove Boutique." - Rafe Gomez, host of The Groove Boutique, syndicated jazz mix show - London, UK "Ron Levy's new CD sounds more like 'Found My Way', then its title 'Finding My Way'! Back on board for the best Wild Kingdom safari ever, is legendary guitarist Melvin Sparks, and for added good measure ex-Grey Boy All-Star and now solo artist Karl Denson. Both add zesty spice to this AMAZING mix. Dig these heavy Levy organic grooves, I did! -Bob Putignano - 'Sounds of Blue' WFDU-FM, Goldmine Magazine and President of the New York Blues Jazz Society "Thanks for the CDs! I frigging LOVE 'Finding My Way' - Tim Schuller - Dallas Observer "The opening cello notes signal that 'FINDING MY WAY' is not "just" another bluesy organ-based outing. The next hour-plus of listening confirms that Levy's savvy musicianship on Hammond, piano, Rhodes, keyboards, vibes and bass and his breadth of influences and inspirations, makes it as one of the choicest such albums of the new Millennium. Between RLWK's commanding monarch and his kingdom whose nobility includes seasoned groove-masters Melvin Sparks and Karl Denson, Levy's ensemble has produced a recording of noteworthy substance and excellence, with an infectiousness matched by its depth. Just don't play 'FINDING MY WAY' where smoking isn't allowed, because that's all Ron Levy's Wild Kingdom does from start to finish!" - Dick Shurman - Producer/journalist Just got FINDING MY WAY, via an order from Dusty Groove. I am, absolutely loving it! The recording/engineering is excellent, the playing and tunes and grooves are remarkable. Loving everything from the vibes to the Fender Rhodes sound, and Karl Denson. Melvin Sparks sounds completely into it and inspired. A great CD, one that I'll put on my top 10 soul jazz CDs of 2003. I do a Friday nite show on WGMC, a public radio station here in Rochester, NY, called the Soul Jazz Spectrum, playing everything from Adderley to Soul Live. We also broadcast via the Internet (wgmc.org) and are soon, boosting our signal strength by a factor of 8 by the end of January. We don't as yet get service from Levtron.com, but I can assure you that stuff of this nature will get airplay on my program and a few others. If you'd like to add us to your list, please do so. Thanks for the great, grooving music. Chuck Ingersoll WGMC Radio
