Jazz, Instrumental Rock, Classical and New Age all in one CD 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, POP: Piano Details: Talia was born in 1991 in Santa Barbara, California. She is a pianist, composer, arranger, songwriter and singer. Talia has the instrument and the versatility to go so many places. Talia's music fuses jazz, world music, hard beats, pop and classical into a sound of unique quality. Talia started playing the piano at the age of four and composing at nine. She reads, writes, and transcribes her music. She has been interviewed on TV (ABC) and featured on CNN's Connie Chung Show. Talia has worked with Grammy winning Producer Jeffrey Weber, David Benoit and Maxi Anderson on her first album recorded at Capitol Records in Hollywood live to two tracks. She also recorded with Sid Page, Becky Bunnell, Larry Corbett and Dave Stone who are part of the Hollywood Studio Symphony to name only a few. "My music is an expression of my feelings," she explains. "I would like for my music to be played on different Radio stations so I can reach as many people as I can." "At an early age, I realized that I can express my feeling through music and many people around the world would understand my expressions since music is the universal language," Talia says. "I got to play here and there and people loved my music. I felt that I could bring peace and happiness to people that I did not know. I loved it."
