Louis Allport recently had the opportunity (and outrageously good fortune) to interview a master when it comes to setting up residual income sites. Since starting out in 1996 (the internet stone age) he has created many money churning sites. Sites that once set up, have only needed minor tweaking as the years go by to keep on coughing up the cash. After developing his winning formula, it was basically rinse & repeat time and time again for creating a slew of websites that have made him a small fortune, and show no signs of letting up. Its every entrepreneurs dream come true... a site that keeps on producing, while you keep on cashing the checks. This exclusive interview is now immediately available for you in this package. Its uncut, uncensored & nothing has been left out. Every word of advice, every insight, every tip, trick and suggestion has been retained. By the time you finish listening to what this interview has to offer, youll know more about starting a residual income business than 95 of the online population ever will!
