"Copy The Proven Techniques used By Some Of The Biggest Sites On The Web!" Some of the most successful websites around today use this very same technique and it makes their sites so 'sticky', people cant help but keep coming back... What is it these sites have in common? ...INTERACTIVITY!! Chances are you're a member of these sites, and have visited them often. Any idea why YouTube is so much more popular than Google Video (and ultimately why Google bought it over)? Because YouTube allows users to participate and interact with the content and each other, just as MySpace does. This user generated content is what makes people come back to these sites over and over again, they just can't get enough of them!
