"New Classical" piano compositions and improvisations continue the solo piano tradition for the 21st century. 16 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Imagine ... music that touches the heart, soul and mind Listen ... to creative, expressive, mystical piano works Experience ... composer, improviser, pianist Arthur Dobrucki Arthur Dobrucki developed his craft as a pianist with Spanish concert pianist Mariblanca de Pujadas who herself studied with Sergei Tarnowsky (teacher of Vladimir Horowitz) and Adele Marcus (pupil of Josef Lhevinne and Artur Schnabel). As a composer, he has developed a unique style that follows in the footsteps of classical composers while integrating contemporary influences and improvisation within his works. His keyboard work has been heard for over 20 years in Southern California. His performances have ranged from solo piano and chamber music classical performances, to musical theater including the Magnificent Moorpark Melodrama and Vaudeville Company, and over 500 performances in the 1980s with the rock band Dorian which was a local fixture on the Los Angeles club scene. Today, Arthur Dobrucki is resident pianist and organist at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Simi Valley, California and continues to be active writing new works for solo piano. The new recording, The Darkness and The Light, contains 16 original works. In an eclectic blend of written compositions and free improvisations, Arthur Dobrucki has established a voice in the solo piano tradition bridging the past into the future. Additional information, including free monthly mp3 performances, are available at azurehillsmusic.com.
