Details: Artist Profile Brandon Lepere was born in Massachusetts and raised in the New Hampshire Seacoast. Brandon began playing piano at the age of 8. He was always active in school music programs and often won his school talent shows. At the age of 14 he was selected from thousands of contestants in New England to audition for pop producer Maurice Starr. During high school he had the opportunity to travel with his award-winning high school classical chorus, performing for large audiences across the U.S. In 1995, Brandon showcased at the Portsmouth Music Hall for the National Country Music Association. After being selected and performing at the national competition in Las Vegas, he was voted Junior Male Vocalist of the Year by the National Country Music Association. Over the past 10 years, Brandon has opened for numerous national acts including Eddie Money, The Wailers, Hootie and the Blowfish, The Fools and James Montgomery. He regularly performs with many of New England's premier musicians and has headlined at major venues and clubs throughout the East Coast. Brandon has written and recorded over 100 original compositions and has released two CDs. Brandon also enjoys collaborating with other writers and artists, and has written songs with Grammy award-winning songwriter Bill Champlin, Billboard award-winning songwriter and producer Mark Eddinger, writer and recording artist Will Champlin, and songwriter and producer Marty Walsh. Brandon is currently performing as a solo artist and is continuing to write for his own catalog as well as for other artists. He is currently in the studio recording tracks for his next CD release.

BRANDON'S THOUGHTS ABOUT HIS EXPERIENCE WITH MUSIC "I believe that creativity is the ultimate form of expression. Brandon Lepere "Many years ago I found out how important it was for me to express myself through music. Since then, music has been my constant companion. It helps me to learn, to grow, and most of all to understand myself." WHY STARTING POINT "I made this CD because many of my fans were getting a little impatient. After all, I had been writing and recording for over 6 years and hadn't made a record yet. I wrote the songs for this record in my home studio during a very dark time in my life, it was finally recorded in less than a week. I believe my struggles were reflected in the material but it was a wonderful way for me to express my emotions. Now I have over 100 original songs, and I'll do my best to make sure you can hear all of them eventually." I hope you enjoy STARTING POINT!
