Currently involved in the cutting-edge Music Ministry of Hillvue Heights Church, Darla frequently travels across the United States leading worship alongside a team of other worship leaders. Since 1992, when she first moved to Bowling Green, Darla has been a voice on several of Hillvue's praise teams. Before that, her hometown of Albany, Kentucky was center stage for this smalltown girl. In the earlier days, Darla alongside her sister, Ginger, and other friends frequently performed at churches and community events throughout the region. Since the age of four, her parents, Jack and Pat Pierce, as well as other family and friends have encouraged Darla to lift her voice to the heavens. Raised in a loving, Christian home, Darla never knew what it was like to be without God in her life, and over time, having matured in her faith, Christ has truly become "real" to her. Darla's day-to-day commitment has led her to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and has given her a passion to reach the lost with His transforming gospel message. Over the years, Darla has occupied several positions in the fields of music and broadcasting. While earning her bachelor's degree in broadcasting at Western Kentucky University, Darla worked at Nashville's Benson Records in the Promotions Department and as a radio disc jockey at several Bowling Green stations. Today, Darla continues to pursue various opportunities in music and radio. Recent projects include voiceovers and background vocals for numerous recording projects and demos. Currently, she is the Assistant to the Worship Pastor at Living Hope Baptist Church in Bowling Green. On September 15, 2001, Darla married local marketing professional Chad Day. Each day the two join in God's work, helping others to experience a meaningful life in Christ.
