Instrumental new age acoustic guitar music 13 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, WORLD: Celtic Details: "Waiting For The Elements" is Eric Peterson's fifth instrumental acoustic guitar CD. Songs are a blend of new age, classical, and contemporary fingerpicking. Instruments featured include: guitar, mandolin, piano, flute, saxophone, trumpet, flugel horn, harmonica, and various percussion instruments. Eric's influences range from classical guitar players, such as Christopher Parkening and Elliot Fisk, to well known fingerstyle artists like Michael Hedges and Billy McLaughlin. "Waiting For The Elements" is a very nostalgic listen and certainly a recommendation! One of the highest compliments given Eric on this CD was that 'it made me cry' said from a stranger at work! "Waiting For The Elements" is an important project for Eric as he's donating 10% of all CD revenue to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation due to having two nephews with the disease. Sample some of the tracks, then buy the CD, it's well worth it!
