High energy fusion rock-jazz from the edge with studio produced sounds as well as improvised jams. 7 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, JAZZ: Acid Jazz Details: Fuze started out as a group of musicians getting together on Saturday nights to jam and have some fun playing music together. Over the years, they have evolved into a modern fusion band with a unique blend of rock, jazz, funk, blues and more. DiG is the first serious studio recording for Fuze with a variety of sounds ranging from tight fusion jazz-rock to funk and blues presented with an aggressive approach. This music is quite different than what you would hear on a smooth jazz station and has a more updated sound than the '70s fusion favorites. Fuze has consistently gained a lot of attention on the web with their unique fusion sound and have had great success with a weekly live audio webcast called the Saturday Night Jam. The songs from DiG have also been featured on a number of popular internet radio shows. Fuze is made up of the following musicians: Joe Purrenhage - Guitar and Keyboards Marcus McGlown - Drums and Percussion Craig Wisper - Lead Guitar Doug Nolls - Bass and Taurus Pedals
