Details: GraceGrown Music is a ministry of Grace Community Church of Arlington Texas. It was established to facilitate and record worship songs that were birthed by Grace Community Church and its related church plants in order to bless God, the local community, and ultimately, the nations. Bless God is a collection of 13 acoustic guitar driven modern worship songs that have been tested and proven in the local church environment. These songs have been used during Sunday morning worship services (congregation over 1400 people), small groups, and youth groups. Bless God is similar to other artists such as Chris Tomlin, David Crowder Band, Matt Redman, and the Passion CDs.
