

Mp3 Hank Horton - A World Of Many Heartaches

DOWNLOAD HERE

Traditional country western music 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Western
Details: Hank Horton/ Wins Big At The 2005 CAMA Hank had his share of struggles and challenges in pursuit to his goal in country music and his perseverance paid off when his first album titled Honky Tonk Heartache Blues won the highly coveted Best Country Album of the year award at the Canadian Aboriginal Music Awards in Toronto, Saturday, November 25, 2005. HANK HORTON/Takes Home (2) APCMA Awards On November 3, 2006 at the MTS Centre, Aboriginal Peoples Choice Music Awards, Hank once again proved too his fans that voted for him, that he is the true spirit of country music. Hank took home second most trophies, winning two (2) awards. He won for Best Country CD and Best Songwriter. More than 5,000 people from around the world voted online to nominate and choose their favorite artist. The awards were handed out in front of a crowd of more than 3,000 people at the Winnipeg MTS Centre, during a classy and impressive nationally televised awards ceremony. Thanks to all the fans that voted across Canada and elsewhere in the world. Hank Horton Wildwood Country consist of five (5) musicians whose high performances are known for packing clubs in their home town of Winnipeg, Manitoba Canada. Hanks whose original music is described as traditional country is blended with a Nashville flavor. Hank Horton Wildwood Country Genre: Pure Country Award winner singer/songwriter and performer who is well known for his playful stage presence and staggering songwriting skills. He formed his locally acclaimed band known as Wildwood Country. Hank began to pursue his solo career full time and effortlessly after he assembled a powerful band to back him on stage. However, no matter what the mood, Hank will always be seen wearing a smile, a born entertainer. Hanks personable demeanor on and off stage has long been a trademark of his music, and he has therefore, created a loyal fan base that he refers to as his friends instead of his fans, therefore, it is no surprise that his town of Winnipeg,

Manitoba, Canada, loves his music. Fans across Canada and around the globe love his music. When asked why people love his music and the answer we get from Hank is that I strive to connect personally with the audience by performing in front of the fans and making them happy. Discography: Hank is currently promoting his music with two albums and 20 original songs he wrote. A BRIEF STORY OF HANK HORTON October 19, 2006 Singer/Songwriter Hank Horton was born and raised in a small Northern Community of Duck Bay, Manitoba, Canada, and at age eight (8) became fascinated with country music and country music became an integral part of his life. He has since evolved into a very inspirational artist and possesses the qualities of becoming a strong influence in the Country Music Industry. Hanks life is so intertwined with his music that he distills a unique style that blends pure country with pure emotion. He penned and recorded twenty (20) original heartfelt songs that reminiscent of love, heartaches, happiness and the struggles in everyday life. Yes, Hank had his share of struggles and challenges in pursuit to his goal in country music and his perseverance paid off when his latest album titled Honky Tonk Heartache Blues won him the highly coveted Best Country Album of the year award at the Canadian Aboriginal Music Awards in Toronto, Saturday, November 25, 2005. Hank is the true spirit of country music and his unique voice is a simble of todays traditional country music. Hanks first release hit the charts in March 2004 with a song he wrote about his girlfriend titled Ive Told You Leona. With success came increased creative freedom and with Hanks mainstream songwriting and recording efforts continue to do extremely well. Another album titled A World Of Many Heartaches will be released January 1, 2007 to the general public and for radio airplay. He has since appeared and has been interviewed by the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network (APTN), Native Communication Incorporated (NCI) 105.5 FM, University of Winnipeg CKUM 95.9 FM, CFRY 920 AM 93.1 FM, and numerous other radio stations throughout Manitoba. As a songwriter, Hank brings a fresh and unique perspective into country music be paying attention to his fans, and then focusing his writing efforts at what the fans want to hear and adds his own personal experiences. Hanks primary influences are Country Music Legends, Hank Williams Sr., George Jones, Ray Price, Buck Owens, Red Sovine, Bill Anderson and Stonewall Jackson, just to name a few. Hank brings his unique and modern perspective into his music in a Nashville country style. The true spirit of Country Music lives in the heart of Hank Horton. Yes, he is unique in every part of the word, confident and yes, the best is yet to come. Acknowledgement Wayne Parenteau

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: