Neo-Soul, R&B, and Pop 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Raised in the San Francisco Bay Area, the future virtuoso Jakada Meazza became a self-described funk-a-holic growing up by listening to the sounds of Rick James, Cameo, and Earth Wind and Fire. For the most part, it appears Jakada has found the perfect combination of commercial pop and r&b. It is here that he weaves an impressive smorgasborg of smooth soulful vocals, infectious basslines and funky guitar riffs with colorful ad-libs and beats that make you bounce. As a singer-songwriter multi-instrumentalist he has created a sound that reminds one of the "old school" but still sounds unique enough to be called his own. Jakada put in years of hard work honing his skills in local bands and local clubs in the San Francisco Bay Area. He now appears poised to connect with an audience of listeners who make up the growing alternative r&b genre better known as "Neo Soul". It is very possible he could take this style of music to an even bigger audience than it already encompasses. This makes Jakada Meazza an artist you gotta know.
