His gigging work keyboards are the Yamaha PSR-282, PSR-215, and the PSR-520. (They just keep going!) and now his primary Yamaha instrument is the Motif ES6. The Motif ES6 is used to sequence the music for the new CD, "Christmas is For Grownups Too". The kind of music Juan Oskar plays in live performances with his group or as a single vary in styles. He does straight ahead be-bop jazz, pop/standards, latino/norteno/boleros, and even a little techo. This is why the last CD was called: "Jazz, Pizzazz, Latino".
