Beginning at home.-LUCKY 10 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: This Album: 2 The Hood is dedicated to the Memory of My Uncle, The Late Wilson K. Smith. Uncle Mickey is the Creator and Founder of The (Congressional) Medal of Honor Monument at Brandywine Park in Wilmington, Delaware and also in The Pentagon in Washington, D.C. This Monument Honors Soldiers of Color who served their Country with Uncommon Valor. God Bless You Uncle Mickey. My Country tis of Thee A Savior is born in All who Hear (His Voice) -The Artist, LUCKY The following is written by LUCKY Composer, Lyricist, Recording Performing Artist, Producer of 2 The Hood "2 The Hood" is prescribed, to those who are suffering from cultural amnesia, spiritual deprivation, 'minoritized inferiority complexes', excruciating poverty and many other ailments and conditions that plague God's children globally. This has and is still crippling us from reaching the true potential of the God-Created; magnificent human beings we should be. Note this prescription is not for everyone: too much studying is a weariness to the bone, so dont overdose on this either. While in the military I had an experience with one of the new enlisted soldiers. We were all conversating about prejudice and what supports it. A comment was made of how some ranking enlisted men were using their authority to have us steppin and fetchin it like niggers. One of our fellow soldiers replied, "We are niggers, all of us. If you Black, you a nigger in this country. Because you all from the city, you tryna be uppity but you still niggers, just like the rest of us. " Now I'm not certain what part of America my brother was from, I think down south but I'm not sure, with this kind of mentality; a man is crippled no matter how brilliant, strong or talented he is - he's detrimentally limited. The first condition that needs to be repaired in this situation is mental reparations. Here's an example, you transform human behavior first by developing the mind, hence the quote be ye transformed by the renewing of your minds. In other words, service the head and the body will follow. Much of what has become social standards are literally stumbling blocks for a people referred to as minorities as a whole. No matter what opportunities are available, they can only benefit you as far as your state of mind... Charles LUCKY Gibbs Recording Performing Artist 1 Peter 2:9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar* (a purchased) people; that ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of the darkness and into his marvelous light. KJV Charles P. Gibbs was born premature with complications and was given the name LUCKY by his nurse because he was blessed to be alive. As an infant, LUCKY was prophesied over and claimed for GOD to do future great works in the service of The Lord. Born and raised in Wilmington, Delaware from a double lineage of musicians, singers, artists and creators, LUCKY is an anointed talent; an artisan. At the age of eight (8), LUCKY began playing drums professionally for a family/ community group - The Mary Dee Gospel Singers and served as an evangelist/ youth leader for inner-city youth and gang members. LUCKY traveled the Eastern Seaboard States singing and playing music in prisons, churches, community centers and at city and corporate events. Raised by a praying Christian Grandmother, LUCKY attended church because he loved to go. At 15, LUCKY was mentored by Rev. Dr. Harold Harrison at Northside Church of God and at 16 received his ordination as a Minister. LUCKY then joined and formed with his brother and cousins - The Smith Gospel Singers and served as Youth Evangelists, traveling the east coast. LUCKY was the vocal arranger for this acapella group and they were based in the independent, historic Mother A.U.M.P. Church Apostolic. LUCKY also became a member of Campus Life - Youth for Christ and was involved with youth camping, Bible Study and Worship Services. LUCKY enlisted in the military at 17, was chosen as Squad Leader and graduated with the Honor Platoon. Music was LUCKY's destiny and called him out of the Army and into Southern California to be a drummer for another family band, Blacksmith. LUCKY also served under Rev. Working as a security guard at Mercy General Hospital, he met his future wife, Kalena, then a pediatric/obstetric nurse. LUCKY and Kalena became friends and then agreed to embark on a musical quest that was and is their higher spiritual calling. They married and started a family, a music business Q.U.T.E. Records, Inc. and moved back east to the inner-city family house in Wilmington, Delaware. Everywhere their children were, more children would gather and their creative home school and daily ministry turned into a Community Outreach Recording and Performing Arts Activities and then into a structured Program for the youth of the city. LUCKY also served Pastor Derrick Johnson of Joshua Harvest Church as Minister of Music in what some people say is the roughest neighborhood in Wilmington. LUCKY and The C.E.R.P.A.H. Initiative were requested by A Youth Foundation of Colorado to relocate to Colorado Springs to bringing the C.E.R.P.A.H. Program to at-risk youth. There were big hopes and aspirations but due to the inability to renew their non-profit status, the Foundation folded without fulfilling it's commitment of employment for LUCKY, Kalena their Youth Program. Their family was just about out on the street. Thank God a total stranger intervened a Colorado Springs Police Officer. man opened his home to LUCKYs entire family of seven.
