The Mojo Farmers "MT Space" CD is a psychedelic jam ride mixing high energy funk, guitar rock, pop grooves, and spaced out sounds. 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Jam-band, ROCK: Psychedelic Details: Mojo Farmers, who hail from Tempe Arizona, have been electrifying audiences with performances at various Phoenix valley clubs, including Hollywood Alley, Sail Inn, and Rio Salado Brewing Co., in addition to performing in other cities in Arizona, Nevada, and California. In the Summer of 2002 the Mojo Farmers self titled CD was released. This CD contains eleven original songs and is 57 minutes in length. This CD is said to have "mega mojo" in a review of the CD in the Phoenix valley entertainment guide, "Get Out". In February of 2003 the Mojo Farmers participated in and won Arizona's Battle of the Jams contest which included recording time at Studio Z in Phoenix as the main prize. The outcome of this recording time has been the 2004 release of the Mojo Farmers second CD, titled "MT Space". The Mojo Farmers' "MT Space CD" is 63 minutes in length, containing eight original songs. Relix magazine, known for it's coverage of the international "jam band" music scene, featured the Mojo Farmers in the December/January 2004 "On the Verge" column. The "On the Verge" column, written by Mick Skidmore, is a recurring column that spotlights up and coming bands from all over the world. Relix magazine calls the Mojo Farmers one of the most promising bands they have heard in many a year and refer to the Mojo Farmers MT Space CD as being "superb" and "first class". Thanks for the support. Adios. Mojo Farmers
