Great Upbeat Country music. A mix of George Strait, Jimmy Buffet, and Old school country 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Randy Thomas was born and raised in Fort Erie Ontario Canada. He has been in the music scene for the past 13 years as a one man band. Live performances ranging from night clubs, festivals, weddings, senior homes, lounges in the Niagara Peninsula. His musical style ranging from the 50's 60's, Rock a Billy, Rock n' Roll, Traditional Country, and New Country. All combined he has developed an effective sound of commercial appeal musically, and lyrically that his audience has come to relate to. Writing influences to name a few, John Denver , Jim Croce, BeeGee's, Roy Orbison. Randy knew the world of music was calling him when he started singing at a young age, entertaining friends and families in the neighborhood with his rendition of Elvis, leaving the cars, and motor cycles to his older brothers. Randy studied music at Mohawk Collage in Hamilton Ontario, and further his craft for song writing by attending song writing work shops in Toronto put on by Songwriters Of Association Of Composers, and Nashville Songwriters Association International. In 1995 Randy recorded his first independent CD album titles "Can't Get Enough" that received air play in Canada, U.S., and over Europe (England, Holland, Germany, Denmark,). Due to that achievement he has performed on Toronto's Breakfast Television, Rodgers Cable T.V., and at the Nashville Palace. He also had the privilege to be the opening act for Newfoundland's comedian, Jimmy Flynn. The year October 2000 Randy won song writer, and International artist award at The Best Of Texas Music Awards In 2001 he received Golden Note Award, Modern Country Artist, Modern Country Songwriter, and Canadian Artist at The Best Of Texas Music Awards. He was approached by Keith Bradford of KMA Records, in Nashville, about a recording contract. This is what Randy really needed. This was the boost to get him writing more songs to record. Now, just releasing his second CD self titled "Randy Thomas" in April 2003 produced by Keith Bradford, CEO of KMA Records and engineered by brother Mike Bradford, he is looking for more great things to come. Randy signed a management deal with Violet Campbell Productions and Promotions in 2000, and all quite excited by the air play the new CD has received already. Randy presented the music to live audiences at several venues in the Fort Erie, Niagara Falls, and Hamilton area, as well as the Uxport Country Music Stampede, Classic Country Music Reunion, Waterdown Jamboree, Hansall Circle Jamboree, Trentwinds International Center and other festivals through out the province. It has been accepted well by all, and his songs have been on the charts all through out Europe. Fresh songs, a new sound, with a distinctive voice, you can't go wrong with this singer/songwriter.
