A mixture of pop and rock and a taste of the 60's 70's and now. Hip, cool contemporary style. This Album appeals to all ages. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Pop/Rock, ROCK: Rock Roll Show all album songs: What Would We Do Without Music Songs Details: Recording Artists Sheri Johnny Sheri and Johnny have had wonderful singing careers of their own through the years, before meeting nine years ago in Las Vegas. With the beautiful blend of their voices, their combined talent and years of experience, it was natural that they join together to form one of the hottest new singing acts, Sheri Johnny. Sheri and Johnnys sound takes their audiences on a magic, musical carpet ride, through time and space, with music from the Good Old Days and back to the present, with some of the greatest songs ever written, from Standards to Lite Rock, Motown, R&B and even a bit of Country. Sheri Livingston Sheri Livingston and her twin sister, Syd started singing professionally at the age of seven years old, throughout Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas. After High School, Syd and Sheri moved to Hollywood and signed with Lute Records and had a Hit record as Cyd and Cheri with Im A Lookin Blue Eyes and Lonesome For You. The they teamed up with Bill Norvas and the Upstarts, Jerry Wilson and Gary Sneed, performing in the Blue Room at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans. The four Upstarts stayed together, changing their name to The Guys and Dolls and played at the Thunderbird Hotel in Las Vegas. When Judy Garland and Mel Torme heard them sing, they signed them with Si Zentners Orchestra for tour throughout the US and Canada, changing their name to The 2+2. Mel managed the group. Later, Syd and Sheri went on to New York where they performed through the years. A few years later, Sheri moved back to Hollywood, performing and producing shows. After a while, when Sheri was headed back to New York, friends introduced her to Johnny Stark over the phone. He was living in Las Vegas. On the way to New York, Sheri stopped in Las Vegas to meet Johnny in person and it was Love at First Sight!. Johnny joined Sheri in New York two months later and the rest is history! Johnny Stark Johnny Stark, born in Fairview, New Jersey, started his singing career at twelve years old, with Opera training, then moving to the Big Band sound and on to the Rock-n-Roll scene. At eighteen, he moved to Hollywood and signed with Crystalette Records with his first big Hit, Rockin Billy and Drivin Me Out Of My Mind which he performed on Dick Clarks American Bandstand TV Show, with Frankie Avalon, Connie Francis and Paul Anka. Johnny appeared from Coast to Coast when a friend nick-named him Johnny Apollo. The name stuck with him for years, with his engagements in LA. But he went back to his name, Johnny Stark. He played in major Clubs in New York, LA, Lake Tahoe and in Las Vegas, where he spent years living and performing. Johnny was also inducted into the Rock-A-Billy Hall Of Fame. Nine years ago, friends of Johnnys introduced him to Sheri Livingston, over the phone. On the way to New York, Sheri stopped to meet Johnny Stark in person, and it was everything they thought it would be and much more. Johnny joined Sheri in New York two months later and for nine years they have been thrilling their fans from Coast to Coast. Sheri Johnny Sheri and Johnny have been performing throughout New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and in Manhattan at: Dont Tell Mama, The ProducersClub Theatre and Theatre East to rave reviews. Also, Sheri and Johnny Wowed their Audiences at Caesars Pocono Resorts in Pennsylvania. Sheri and Johnny just moved their home-base from LasVegas and Branson, MO., where they have been performing for the last four years, back to New York. They have gained fans across the US and will be touring in Europe soon. When you see them perform, you will see why Sheri and Johnny are in such demand from Coast to Coast!
