DISCOGRAPHY : The second Sudden Ensemble record "Life In A Birdcage" has now been released on Box 13 Records. Though their early sound has been somewhat mistakenly labeled as scuzzy, lo-fi guitar and drum workouts with deadpan, narcotized vocals in THE WIRE magazine, the group has surprisingly gone on to progress, ever so beautifully, into a butterfly with their new release. Scuzz Rock, indeed. The debut album "Am11" by the group Sudden Ensemble was released on the ANGELIKA KOEHLERMANN label (founded by musician/artists Gerhard Potuznik Tex Avery - featured in CMJs Local Zine profile) and was played and championed by legendary British DJ JOHN PEEL, who surveyed numerous tracks on his Radio One and BBC WORLD SERVICE shows. It was also featured on U.S. college radio and international stations such as WYNU New York City, WCBN Ann Arbor, KWVA Eugene Oregon, Radio INS Denmark, Triple RRR 102.7FM International Underground Show in Australia, Martini Brothers Show Italy, and various internet radio stations. The Sudden Ensemble CD "AM 11" is distributed in the United States by Forced Exposure. The influential electronic and avant-garde label Mego and Mego Direct support the release in Europe. On the heels of the new Sudden Ensemble CD, BOX 13 RECORDS is poised to release CD's from the bands Father Murphy and Littlebrown who's own musical sensibilities along with that of Sudden Ensemble will surely make BOX 13 RECORDS a new label to watch! SE are:
