GLIMPSES OF HEAVEN is a meditation into the autobiographical memories of three distinguished Canadian artists (George Littlechild, painter; Peter Gary, composer; and Wayne Ngan, potter). The film explores the process of learning to take hold of moments of joy and to forge lives of creativity, against overwhelming memories of childhood trauma. Premieres: 2007 Whistler Film Festival (Canada); 2007 Santa Barbara International Film Festival (US) TV Broadcast: Tampa Educational Cable Consortium
