a heavy dose of funk mixes it up with rock, jazz, reggae latin, all coming down to the line in a dead heat. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Dead Heat blends the rhythms of jazz, funk, rock, salsa, reggae swing. Of the ten selections, five are original compositions. Dead Heat is the realization of a musical concept by Bil Jenko: musician, songwriter, producer, engineer, arranger studio owner. He has been making music for many years (his first paid gig was in the seventh grade) on the road in the studio playing jazz, swing, rock, blues, pop bluegrass. Bil has produced engineered many albums covering a wide variety of musical styles under his Whynot Music label. He has performed with recorded artists including The Brubeck-LaVerne Trio, The Ed Shaughnessy Quintet, Peter Tork, James Lee Stanley, The North Carolina Shakespeare Festival, The Hot Club Quartet, NPR, Chris Murrell, Claude Frank, The Vienna String Quartet, Craig Smith, Wood Steel, JJ Blue the Tokyo String Quartet along with many others. Bil currently performs with the jazz quartet the UpperlineUp. The other members of the UpperlineUp also appear on Dead Heat. Most recently, Bil was a member of the jump-swing blues quintet Blues-A-Matic. The artists appearing on Dead Heat are: Bil Jenko - all keyboards percussion Larry Carman - drums Steve Blake - sax Gino Grandinetti - guitar Alan Neese - trumpet Jack King - guitar Ken Wilmot - trumpet Dave Reid - clarinet Greg Hyslop - guitar Mike Wesolowski - harmonica Roberto Orihuela - percussion Alan Nemeth - vibes drums Steve Ware - bass Jeff Weichinger - bass Chris Hill - bass Debra Pivetta - flute Jerry Blevins - guitar From Bil: This album covers many styles of music. My intent was to remove boundaries in order to create new sounds. I also consider the studio itself to be a musical instrument, studio pioneers such as George Martin Jimi Hendrix are a great influence. Thanks for listening!
