IMAGINE FRANK ZAPPA BEING ABANDONNED AT A TRUCK STOP AT A YOUNG AGE WITH ONLY BTO AND DR. DEMENTO TO LISTEN TO? PSUEDO-INBRED COUNTRY INTERSECTS WITH ROCK AND PSYCHEDELIA. FUN FOR THE WHOLE GANG. MOJO NIXON MIGHT JUST BE EMBARRASSED TO ADMIT "HE'S KIN." 26 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Songs about love, trucks, inbreeding, religion, love and so much more, Bill Dant is a Portland, Oregon recording artist who has entertained many and offended only a few thickies who "Just Don't Get It!," since 1990. Moving seamlessly between musical styles as diverse as rock, country, synth-driven Krautrock psychedelia, Dr. Demento describes Bill as having, "A Wicked Sense Of Humor And Songcraft," and played his 1991 classic "It's Our God-Given Right To Drive V-8's," on his show last Spring, which is ironically as scathing an indictment on jingoism today, as it was during the first Gulf War. National Public Radio's cult show "Car Talk" loved Bill's disturbed sense of humor as well, playing "Suicide Pinto" recently, which prompted Bill to finally make ALL THE GOODS available to the general public. Nearly 80 minutes of goodness packed into 26 songs will leave listeners more than satisfied and wanting more. Please order today: Supplies are unlimited!
