Funky jazz meets Neosoul laced with Hip-Hop and rocksoul-style; real smooth r/b. Fun, fine, fabulous, and moving. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: California Flight Project (2) re-read their first bio, go look it all started there. California Flight project (1) is a masterful extension of the musical brilliance in Bo/Joe Production (DUO) of Jerry J. (aka) Bobelli and (Big) Joe Brown. Like some music critics have openingly said! "They are lyrically and prolifically some of the most funkier gifted arrangers, writers ever on this planet music scene the earth have ever produce by The Almighty God. And are true soulful musicians of our time as well". They have what many call that "true melodic soul money touch" in song writing, production arrangements. It's a tribute to them like "age old wine they only get better with age". This (DUO) production team and their music is timeless. Notice the arrangements on "Nothing for something", the production on "Patience", "Maybe This Time", "Slow Dance" a great score for an upcoming movie as well as the rendition of "Up Side Down" funky. The California Flight project (2) release is great music in itself. The (DUO) Bo/Joe, team up with "Legendary" Pajama Producer Jim Gardiner on tracks "Slow Dance", "Maybe This Time", "Patience", "Body Touch", "Surrender all of my Love". By the way Jim Gardiner is (Kenny G) the legendary soprano sax players "mentor", Jim a co/founder of "Live Oak Studio" in Berkeley California, "Pajama Studios" of Oakland California. Jim Gardiner is considered one of the greatest arranger's and trumpet players of our time. This project (1) will give you goose bumps a chilling reminder of these guys collaboration from California Flight 2. They can flat out get jazzy/funky and produce. Music is the Creator's love for us. With the beauty of soundwave and the creative melody's are an emotional feel this is one "arts" finest pieces. Their music will make a grown "Man Sigh" and rejoice all the same. Yes! California Flight project (1), have that beautiful dynamically soulful funky art sound. With Jerry J's, strong soulful vocal funky feel will do just that and with (Big Joe)

Brown funk arrangements sounds of funk like an Hershel Kennedy keyboard player formally of Graham Central Station he can jam with the best of them. California Flight Project 1. A jazzy, neo-soul/hip hop-Rock Soul/but moves and grooves (yeah Baby)! The pieces are in the right places. Beautiful musical arrangements silky smooth soulful hooks the funk is in place, great story structure, jazzy colorful dance music, a far reaching (GREAT Production) material well done. California Flight Project (1) just make you think? Umm! These Guys are making it happen! Enjoy the Ride of California Flight. .BCPJ : ) A Division of Black Diamond Records/IHP Media Group.
