Alternative Underground Pop Rock 7 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Release Date: 2000 The debut recording by songwriter Christopher Hornisch. While searching to join or start a new rock 'n roll band after the break up of his college band "In Other Words", Chris paused to make his studio recording debut at the now defunct Oarfin Studios in Minneapolis, MN. "In Other Words" bassist, Dan Bass (pronounced like the fish ironically) was recruited to supply the bass guitar and also lays down the accordion parts on "Baker Street" and "Mystery Of Life". Todd Fitzgerald, then the head engineer at Oarfin, engineered the record and assisted with the production (he now operates the Twin Cities studio Winterland Studios). Chris Hornisch currently plays bass guitar and sings in Twin Cities rock band Urban Sun.
