All original working man's Americana songs in various styles including traditional country, lyrical stories, political comment, and latin beats. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: David Fredrick Lochelt Bio: Born March 4, 1948 Sacramento, California. Began playing music as a trombone player in the 4th grade. Got his first guitar with S&H Green stamps in the mid sixties and has played ever since. Started writing songs at age 14. Drafted in 1968. Viet Nam Veteran. College dropout. Hitch hiked across the United States seven times and Europe once. Married four times. 35 years as a professional musician playing every musical venue known to man, woman, and beast. Recovered (29 years) alcoholic and drug addict. A true road warrior and a journeyman dues payer. Self-educated, self-taught, self-absorbed atheist who writes about life on the gravel road, hope and despair, the simple side of love and the callous side of being an American. From cross-dressing to catching fireflies. From giving up on humanity to grasping the true sense of brother and sisterhood. Musical poetry with the gift of fitting into everyone's heart, if just for a minute. The kind of songwriter who makes people say, "I can do that" but they can't.
