Narrative Beat-Driven Electronica; carries influences of breakbeat, trip-hop, trance, jazz and ambient styles, always retains a steady groove. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Breakbeat/Breaks, HIP HOP/RAP: Trip Hop Details: DR NIGEL was born Neil Gregory Larson. He hails from Boston, Massachusetts and currently resides just outside the city. He has been producing music since the mid 90s, and has recently released his first-ever EP album, "Seeing in Squares." Dr Nigel's music, which carries influences of breakbeat, trip-hop, trance, jazz and ambient styles, always retains a steady groove. Larson currently performs in Boston with two touring acts: Amun Ra and Nikulydin. Amun Ra is a 5-piece ensemble mixing styles of soulful breakbeat with an electronic jazz-blues-rock edge. The band, fronted by vocalist Emily Fisher, has just released their first full-length album, "Bloom," and can be found on the web at amunramusic.com. Nikulydin is an all-electronic 7-piece live-trance ensemble whose music seeks to emulate a DJ's repertoire. It is an improvisatory exploration into the electronic realm of dance music. Nikulydin can be seen on the web at nikulydin.com. Dr Nigel is planning a series of live performances in the Northeast, to support this EP release. He maintains his website drnigelwhere he keeps record of his past performances as well as upcoming events and projects. Dr Nigel also looks forward to the release of his first full-length record, "Isolated," which will feature 16 original tracks. A follow-up LP has also been constructed and planned for release. Meanwhile Dr Nigel continues full-throttle producing music at his "Studio Squared" in Somerville, Mass., while spending his free time performing with Amun Ra and Nikulydin.
