A diverse set of Acoustic based soul and folk flavoured songs from Irish Singer/Songwriter Dundon. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, WORLD: Celtic Details: Drew Dundon was born in Dun Laoghaire, Ireland. In the mid nineties, frustrated by his inability to purchase overpriced food in a slowly rotating restaurant it became clear that he had but one option. Now based in Seattle, Washington, Mr. Dundon spends every day immersed in music from all genres. Working as a music programmer for the world's largest digital media company and as an FM radio host by day, it's truly a miracle that he finds time to devote himself to the upkeep of his own indie recording studio. But that he does, and his latest release stands as evidence. Between the Walls is a fresh batch of songs built on an acoustic framework and fleshed out with engaging harmonies, keyboard textures and lyrics that seem to demand your attention. Recorded and played entirely by Dundon, it is clearly a testament to his many musical influences. There is an empty space in every CD collection, it looks like the time has finally come to fill that gap!
