You stumble upon a rally. You get hit in the head with a rock. You're carried over to a soft patch grass where an acoustic band is playing songs that go perfectly with your swelling head. You realize they're narrating. 3 MP3 Songs in this album (11:22) ! Related styles: FOLK: Political Folk, ROCK: Pub Rock

People who are interested in Dead Can Dance Crass should consider this download. Details: Punk rock types could learn something from the uncategorizable band that takes influences from all over the place and put them together to create their own new sound." - 401 Media

Since 2002 HUMANWINE has created solution oriented, socio-political allegorical tales that unfold best in the great outdoors but can also be found live in concert halls, theatres, nightclubs, community centers, cafes, warehouses, galleries and at Your House. The Muzik of HUMANWINE is fluid and changing with each line up. Often 1 or more players on stage will be playing together for the first time. The themes most visited by HUMANWINE are GMO, animal rights, human rights, women's rights, men's rights, equal rights, Earth's rights and the right of the Universe and Multiverses to exists without too much trouble from the human race which is splintering itself into tiny fragments to avoid actually coming together to solve the many very real problems that humans have created for themselves, the Earth, the Universe and the Multiverses.
