We want to Thank all our Fans for supporting our UK release of What About Us and keeping it in the top 10 Urban for CD Baby for over six months in 2006/2007. Thank you CD Baby for all your support **** Livin Out Loud's members are from Los Angeles, but they have been breaking down doors world wide particularly in the UK. In the tradition of Nelly, Destiny's Child and the legendary Tina Turner, Livin Out Loud went to London to promote their sound. Livin Out Loud is quickly becoming appreciated in the USA. Their new album What About Us, distributed by Fontana /Universal is playing on 238 College Media Journal Stations In the USA (as of April 30,2007). Their single "All That Really Matters-5AM" single was picked up by Fluid Audio/American Idol Underground for their debut CD to release late April and was selected as the track for the Robbins Bros. Commercial campaign. Livin Out Loud's music covers the RnB, Hip Hop and Club genres providing their unique perspective in every area. Following the success in Europe of their debut single Where's The Love', and their follow up single "What About Us", which open at #4 on the UK DMC Urban Update Chart, followed by All That Really Matters-5AM was #1 on UK Dj Pages charts in December and January. Currently (June 07), Lately-Club Mix charted #2 in UK Soul Nation Magazine. Slick RnB sounds blend effortlessly with the soft silky vocals of Reuben MacCalla, Sylvia MacCalla, Lisa LaShawn and Martini with contributions from Crisis. Tracks like, "Brokeazz", Hey Yo" and "What You Came Here For" with their infectious grooves are complimented by the laid-back feel of "You Are My Sunshine/All That Really Matters", Lately, and "So Amazing". The track "Lately" has charted on both the Blues Soul "Hip List" and the Urban Essentials "Soul Street Chart". The track "Static" is also a fine example of classic West Coast funk, "Make Me Move" and "Had Enough" provide RnB/Pop crossover, while the singles and are simply great songs that give this Soul/RnB/Hip Hop album a real timeless quality.
