The New Princess of Hip Hop and R&B brings you her "sensual/soul street music" a little contemporary R&B mixed with Hip Hop funk and a dash of West Coast flavor. 16 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Bio nTozake Boston exploded onto the scene at 18 years old, in February 2002 when she performed one of her self-penned ballads entitled "All Over" at the Super Bowl Exhilaration XXXVI, held in New Orleans, Louisiana. nTozake captivated the audience with her exotic beauty, lyrical creativity and her unique ability to connect with women while crooning her sensual undertones to all of the males in the audience. She met and eventually signed on with a Chicago-based Production/Management team, OSA Productions, who happened to hear her perform at Bally's Casino in New Orleans. She's been showcasing her talent all over the city of Chicago and surrounding Midwest areas setting the stage for the introduction of her debut album "How I Feel" to the world. nTozake, the eldest of six children, first started singing in the church choir in her hometown of Phoenix, Arizona when she was about 11 years old. "I remember feeling really nervous but excited at the same time. "After I finished the song and felt the crowd's reaction, I knew right then that I wanted to sing for people for the rest of my life. "Music is my world". She is not only a singer/songwriter but a trained dancer as well. Check out her moves in her upcoming video. nTozake's songs are moving and emotionally charged. The emotion people hear in her music, comes from life experiences. "When I sing for other people it's such a release for me". "It's like my therapy. " If I couldn't write and sing for people I would just be lost". "Music is my life". nTozake not only wrote the lyrics to the songs on her debut album "How I Feel, she also co-produced some of the "sensual/soul street music" as well. (nTozake..... "Ta-zok-eee") "she who walks like a lion and comes with her own things" Read more and get the latest on news and appearances at ntozakeboston.com
