

Mp3 Renaissance - Meet Me On The Corner

DOWNLOAD HERE

Renaissance sings street corner style, all a cappella doo wop with revealing and humorous commentary that provides for an authentic street corner experience. 24 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Before there was hip hop, there was doo wop; and it was sung a cappella on street corners all across the United States. The popular group, RENAISSANCE, masterfully sings street corner style Doo Wop Meet me on the Corner, is an all a cappella doo wop CD that recreates the street corner experience of the 50's and early 60's. Its theater of the mind featuring 14 songs that pay homage to the genius of Sam Cooke, Clyde McPhatter, Harvey Fuqua the Moonglows along with numerous other soulful pioneering forefathers of American song. The lone contemporary composition featured is John Legend's It Don't Have to Change. This wistful tune is utilized as an inventive bridge back into time celebrating to the good old songs of yesteryear. RENAISSANCE recaptures a moment in time from an age of innocence when singing was an interactive communal experience. The songs and reflections of the group allows the listener to experience first hand, a nostalgic look at a by gone era. Stop by this virtual street corner and you'll re-live that enchanting moment of your first kiss, back seats bobby socks and Drive-in-Movies. All you have to do is listen and remember. The brain child of Maurice Kitchen, an award winning Musical Playwright and producer out of Chicago, this project has been described as a ground breaking and trend setting event that invites us all to celebrate the power in remembering. Assembled in Los Angeles CA, the group represents unique musical influences from all across the U.S in members, Torre Reese of New Orleans, Kwame Alexander from Memphis, Charles (Sonny) Banks - San Antonio Texas TX and Anthony Snead hailing from Newark NJ. Early response to the project has been overwhelming.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: