Still

Thinking are solid and consistent contributors to the scene and this highly anticipated release confirms the seven-piece outfit can cut the goods in the studio. When a group has such a vibrant live presence it's often lost on record, but not here. Jumping tracks Everybody and One For The Ladies have classy instrumentation and Karishma Sadhai's soulful guest vocals. Featuring some of Melbourne's most gifted and hard-working young musicians, the great production and artwork complete an impressive, if simple, debut album. In a word: Infectious
