Crooners/Vocals, POP: British Pop Details: Theghostorchestra are a 14 piece British band singing sad songs of loss and love. The songs sound like they've been pinched from a musical like Rocky Horror or Hair. Or not. With 5 lead vocalists and a string quartet plus piano, organ, harpsichord, drums, sax, guitars and bass etc The songs are quite angry but housed in arrangements reminiscent of Bacharach or Brian Wilson. Radio 2 in Britain have been playing our tracks and some of the instrumentals have been used in theatre productions in London.
