Crook, Jr. AKA REDD As a child, I loved to sing and everything I did was done with a song. My singing career began in 1967. At the age of ten years old, my mother allowed me to sing in the adult choir of our church, the Starlight Missionary Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois. I sang in the adult choir until I was seventeen, working in the church with all of the choirs. In 1974, the Lord blessed me to start singing in a group started by my cousins called the Jordan Travelers, (now know as the Majestics) a quartet group where I sang as a background singer and played the organ. We traveled throughout Chicago singing Gods praises. When I reached the age of twenty-one, we joined the Prophets of Joy under the guidance of Willie Reese, Sr. I sang background for a while and the Lord blessed me and developed my voice to sing as a lead singer. I continued singing Zion songs with this group traveling all over the world until 1984; I joined the Trinity All Nations Church under the leadership of the late Dr. Doris Evelyn Davis. I sang in the recording choir with Elder Larry Roberts and the Voices of Trinity. I have been married to my wife Pastor/Evangelist Vivian Crook for the past twenty years, and we have two children. Our eldest is Pastor Brian Keith, who resides in Madison, Wisconsin, and our youngest is William Nathaniel, who is one of the greatest, most talented musicians that ever lived. I am a member of Holy Temple Cathedral of Deliverance, where my wife is Pastor and I am associate minister. In 1997, the Lord put it in my heart to form the singing group called Kymestri, which consisted of three other young men, the renowned recording artist, Fred Dubois, Allen Conley, Robert L. Brown Lamont Brown and myself. We ministered in song in many concerts and Gospel Festivals throughout Chicago and the outlying areas. God has now led us to branch off into the gospel music industry, and ministry, some, including myself, have even done single projects. The Lord has inspired me to write, arrange songs that are motivated by Gods word. Presently, I am singing with Leanne Faine and Favor. Our new release has just come out entitled, Dont You Give Up. I give all glory, honor, and praises to God for where he has brought me. I also thank God for all of the gospel preachers that mentored my God given talent. The list includes the late Dr. Doris Evelyn Davis of Trinity All Nations Church; Bishop Ocie Booker, Pastor of Tabernacle of God C.O.G.I.C. and presiding Bishop of the First Jurisdiction of Church of God in Christ; my Overseer, Bishop Craig S. Baymon, of Holy Temple Cathedral of Deliverance in Memphis, Tennessee, and Harvey, Illinois; and I praise God for the late Mrs. Louise Crook, my mom that allowed me to sing and begin my career at a young age. My most recent project is entitled, Possessed By His Love. This project is my first single compact disc, and I am excited about its completion and release. After singing and writing on so many albums for other choirs and artist, I endeavored to get some of my own work out. I love the Lord and singing is my passion. I pray that the words to every song will uplift, encourage, and strengthen the people of God. I hope that it will inspire you to continue to hold on to that faith you have in the Lord knowing that He is the one who is able to sustain and provide for us. Only Because of Christ! William M.
