Rescue medic Angus Campbell meets every difficult situation head-on. But bonding with his newfound son will require more than his professional training--it will take his heart and his time. Angus's childhood home, Lyrebird Lake, is the best place to find both of those things. Pregnant midwife Mia is expecting a new arrival--though this six-foot sex god is a total surprise! Mia does her best not to get involved, yet she can't help but realize that if she and Angus were to marry, his son and her baby would have the perfect family...but would they have love?
