Learn to cook Chinese better than your local takeaway! Every recipe you find in this eBook is a genuine Chinese recipe. As such you will obviously get the best results if you use genuine Chinese ingredients. We realise that these can often be hard to find, however dont worry. Most of the ingredients can now be found at your local supermarket. If you cant find the ingredients at your local supermarket, try a specialist Deli or considering asking the supermarket if they would be able to get the product for you.
