Smooth grooves, flowing melodies and cool sounds will take you to the various realms of chill. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Chill out, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: A.C. Sharp (Adam C. Sharp) is proud to present his second release as A.C. Sharp. But, what has he been doing since his 2003 release, Drifters? Well, he has worked with Jenn Sharp to create azure risings Lessons and recently (under the name Sceptre) created the ominous Dark Halls. All of which are published under Blue Hush Productions and can be found here on CD Baby. With Silver Lane, Sharp has dipped into a more ambient-chill electronic flow filled with over 75 minutes of soothing instrumental tracks which explore the various forms of chill. The album starts with the title track, Silver Lane then slowly continues to journey into a cool world in motion. The rhythms are slow grooves with soothing melodies flowing through various patterns of ambience until the final track, In Trans It. Sharp has worked to create music to relax and chill to whether your driving, sitting around on a lazy day or to hanging around with friends. Silver Lane is never too calm to sleep to or too active to disturb, yet filled with musical patterns to keep the ear interested for the next taste of the next track. A.C. continues to work on various styles including calm and meditative, ambient, soundtrack, chill and many others. A.C. has also created music which has been performed by the Galveston Community College Choir. He plays various percussion instruments and explores ever-more new forms of emotion through music.
