French Impressionist masterpieces. Dark and swirling, dramatic and colorful. The Borromeo Quartet is the most exciting young group now before the public. 8 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Traditional, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Recorded at the historic Methuen Memorial Music Hall outside Boston, MA, the Borromeo String Quartet's first recording project for Image Recordings, featuring the Quartet and String Duo of Maurice Ravel, was honored with the Chamber Music America/WQXR Award for Recording Excellence in 2001. This dynamic young group has won the Young Concert Artists International Auditions as well as the prestigious Cleveland Quartet Award. The group has a busy performing schedule at major concert halls throughout the world, and audiences invariably rise to their feet spontaneously at their concerts. This disc will give you an idea why! WHAT THE CRITICS SAY...QUOTES "So rich in detail and variety one might have thought an entire orchestra was playing." The Washington Post "It is impossible to imagine a better performance. This quartet combines every 20th-century virtuoso ensemble virtue with an old-world sense of color, character, and style." The Boston Globe
