Alternative Hip-Hop who use funk rock, and trip hop all in one. It's a clash of lyrical sickness with jaw droppin' beats. It's a pure blend of all styles. 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Trip Hop Details: From the sun baked streets of G-Town, Arizona, the Brew Crew emerges with a brand-new sound that combines hip-hop with a twist of alternative rock and old school funk. The dislocated styles of Doc and Knox swarm the underground scene with their jaw dropping beats, in your face lyrics, and shocking stage presence. Since forming in the summer of 2004 in a one bedroom, one bathroom, milk crate-furnished apartment, the Brew Crew has set out to raise the bar of what's expected. "It's time for music to quit standing still. It's time for music to go in a direction." (Brew Crew) You can say it's a life style movement. "It's about the music . . . for the people." Their party style flow patterns and anthem like hooks involve the crowd and the skeptic listener. The energetic upbringing of sounds and rhyme schemes allow everyone to enter their world, "The Brew Nation." And if you have to ask, you'll never know.
