Details: Cannonhands is a collective of musicians from Evansville, Indiana that is centered around the creations of singer/songwriter Billy Perkins (Moonlight Heist). The eclectic mix of indie rock, Americana, and dream-like soundscapes seeks to leave a personal impression on every listener with meaningful lyrics and memorable hooks. Perkins co. seek to be personal with every note and riff while at the same time leaning into an arena rock sing-a-long that leaves you wanting more. While their influences include Johnny Cash, Elvis Costello, and The Clash, Cannonhands seeks to bring a sincere voice to the table of todays songwriting. The lyrical themes include God, the Mid-West, and undying loyalty. With the punk rock drive and jazz tinged percussion of Jeremy Edmondson (The Redemption Song, Drag The Stick) always backing him, Cannonhands is sure to be a good time every time!
