"We are pleased to feature this CD on 'In The Spirit'. It is highly spirited and wonderfully accessible. These are songs you wind up humming to in your head after you hear them. Christina sings beautifully." Gary Goldberg, WRPI, 91.5FM Christina MG Dellea is well known in the Roe Jan (NY)/Berkshire(MA) area as a versatile and exceptional vocalist with an intrinsic ability to harmonize. Specializing in pop/folk music, performs with Pop!ternatives and Harmony Heart. She also sings with various choirs, choruses and as a soloist in churches, at weddings and other events. Christina recently formed the Columbia Arts Team, Inc. (a 501 3 not for profit) with partners Liv Cummins and Sandy McKnight, to promote the arts in Columbia County and surrounding environs. She produces CAT's Coffeehouse concert series, which presents a variety of music in the summer months; and co produces other CAT shows. She's also deeply involved in her community and church. Christina was born and raised in Tarrytown, a suburb of New York City. Coming from a musical family, and never being shy, it wasnt any surprise to hear her passionately sing at the age of four. She also played the saxophone at an early age, eventually making all county/all state levels. Singing was still the focus so she decided to add hand percussion to her act. After graduation, she began doing studio work, which brought her to Los Angeles for several years. She has been performing throughout the Berkshires and Hudson Valley at festivals, clubs, church events, and private parties. Her CDs Roe Jan Valley and The Hills of Berkshire County (both by Us Too, with Joel Goldstein) are also available in stores and here at cdbaby.com/cd/ustoo. This is her first solo compilation of some of the songs she loves to sing, and she is contemplating the second CD. Christina lives in Columbia County with her husband

Phillip. You can also check out what Christina is up to on columbiaartsteam.org
