Christy explores; love, heartbreak, self-love and healing in this contemplative CD that is both insightful and upbeat acoustic. 17 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: Biography Christy is a North Carolina native whose talents are now being enjoyed all over the world, due in part to her coast-to-coast touring, the national and international airplay, and the worldwide distribution of her music. She has produced and independently released five CDs with the latest being an April 2003 release, "Change Is Good". Her CDs have received praise for her lyrics that encourage you to think and feel and open you up to laugh, love, and enjoy life. In the words of Les Reynolds of Indie-Music.com, "This North Carolina singer-songwriter is one you could listen to all day...rich, comfortable yet forceful vocals, fluid and sometimes percussive acoustic guitar...Christy could change the world with her songs." Once Christy graduated with her degree in Marketing in 1991, she began pursuing a full time career recording and performing her music. In 1996 she decided to take a break from music and took a job as a Marketing Specialist. She enjoyed the challenges and promotions she received during the next three years but could not overcome the desire to follow her heart and her music and therefore slowly began performing and recording again. In July of 1999, shortly after the release of her second CD "Solid Ground", she left Corporate America and began pursuing her music career full time with a new sense of direction and purpose. In 2000 she released her first live CD "Awake Alive", which gives the listener a peak into Christy's captivating live shows. Then in 2001 she released her first instrumental CD of all Native American Flute music. Her fifth CD "Change Is Good" is filled with introspective, positive and life affirming insights and is her richest work yet. Christy Began adding New Thought Churches to her tours in 1999 as her positive outlook on life and beliefs in equality, worth and love began to shine through in her music. Her music has been described as both playful and spiritual. She includes in her shows all types of songs from passionate musings such as "Sugar Cane Candy" to songs like "Stand In Love" about the belief in unity and the healing power of love. Christy has a very diverse folk style of music, as she accompanies herself with acoustic guitar but also moody harmonica riffs and the Native American Flute. Her current beliefs are a mixture she often refers to as New Thought-Pagan-Native American-Buddhist, which probably has something to do with why her music is sort of Spiritual-Folk-Pop-Rock-Americana. You can just call it "Good" for short. *****

 About Solid Ground: "Her music comes across as a sum of the influences she has internalized... beautifully sung and played, 'Solid Ground' delivers the missing link between thought and expression while bridging the distance between artist and audience." Rapid River Eclectic/Asheville, NC "Christy's thought provoking lyrics and soulful guitar are brought to life by her energy and passion, in this CD of eclectic folk tunes..." (Solid Ground) Oasis Duplication/Flint Hill, VA "She's good, really good. And she does all this through a voice combining the qualities of KD Lang and Natalie Merchant (yes, that's right, and it works!) This North Carolina singer-songwriter is one you could listen to all day. Instrumentally, Christy's second CD... is solid and acoustic driven. Lyrically, it's excellent." Les Reynolds/Indie-Music.com "Christy, Thanks for sending us your CD 'Solid Ground'. It's solid all right! Your songs are well written, and I enjoy a strong voice, such as yours. Your CD will undoubtedly get a bunch of spins on several different shows on KEOS. KEOS is the primary source of acoustic, Americana, blues, bluegrass, folk, singer-songwriter and roots music of all kinds here in Aggieland (the home of Texas A&M University, and the cities of College Station and Bryan, TX). Thanks so much and good luck.... John" John Roths Music Director KEOS 89.1 FM College Station, TX "Hi Christy, Thanks for sending me Solid Ground...I like your sound...I look forward to using it on my show.
