Details: Drome is an instrumental concept created by guitarist/composer/producer Jesper Leth in 2003. The first demo came in 2005 and contained five tracks, which would take the listener on a journey through sonic soundscapes ranging from dark and haunting to uplifting. Finally, in 2009 the large scale, conceptual debut album "Soul Warrior" came out on Jesper's own label: Stormchaser Records. The album is actually a soundtrack composed for the interactive e-book "Soul Warrior", also written by Jesper Leth. The e-book can be downloaded for free at the official Drome website. The trademark sound of Drome is huge orchestral arrangements with massive layers of electric guitar, taking the listener on a vast journey through nearly every human emotion. "To me the electric guitar is one of the most expressive instruments in modern music and I've allways wanted to use it in a more orchestral context, than you would normally hear. I didn't just want the guitar to wail on top of an orchestra, but I really wanted it to sound, as if there were several guitarists sitting down there playing along with the rest of the guys in the orchestra" - Jesper Leth
